- A. New Members: A prospective member (“New Member”) shall pay the current dues amount at the time they receive any rulebooks, materials, or attend a clinic, half of which is non-refundable. If the New Member fails to pass the test, the Secretary/Treasurer will refund one half of the dues paid. New members will receive a set of red and yellow cards and a flipping coin upon passing their test. Dues for new members will be sent to the CHSAA Officials Office no later than seven days after their first competition date.
 - B. Transferring Members: An official moving from another state (“Transferring Member”) may transfer his or her membership status from that state to CVOA. The Transferring Member shall complete a registration form, pay required dues, meet desired membership requirements, and submit to the CVOA Secretary a letter from an officer of the sending state's official’s organization stating the transferring official's current membership status. The CVOA Secretary will then determine the official's CVOA membership status. No late fee will be charged to transferring officials if his or her transfer prevented him or her from paying the dues on time. When the transferring state association validates the number of years of continuous membership, that experience will transfer also.

II. Membership Dues, Registration and Testing Requirements

- 1. Dues.
 - A. Members will pay dues through the CHSAA Officials’ Office each year by May 31. The President and Secretary/Treasurer may use discretion in charging late fees for dues received late in special circumstances. The late fee is $10 until June 30 and $20 thereafter.
 - B. Annual dues for Regular members shall be equal to the sum of the fees for a sub-varsity match and a varsity match, rounded up to the nearest dollar minus any separate insurance cost with a maximum reduction of $7.00 as billed by the CHSAA, plus any additional amount deemed necessary to cover fees charged to the association or its members.

- C. Members will be charged a minimum of $20 for checks that are returned. Repeated offenses may be grounds for disciplinary action.
- D. The Treasurer may refund dues paid, if requested 60 days prior to the first competitive date as set by CHSAA.
