  - 2022-23 Regional Clinic will be released on RefPrep on July 15
    - RefPrep remote learning is a good alternative to in-person clinics
    - Provides time flexibility, accountability and documentation of completion
  - All members should use this link to either log in to an existing account or register a new account:
    - https://refprep.teachable.com/p/2022-23-cvoa-regional-clinic?coupon\_code=CVOA
  - New members should not be given this link until dues are paid
  - If you've forgotten your account credentials, use the "Forgot Password" link
  - DO NOT try to navigate RefPrep on your own! Use the above link to log in or register!
  - Completion is required by the first date of competition, August 18, for Certified status and post-season eligibility
  - In-person clinics are again permitted and encouraged
    - Video clinic modules will be available for download by clinic leaders on request
    - Accurate and legible attendance rosters are essential. Submit to Rob asap after clinic.
  - Regional Clinics by Zoom meeting will no longer be offered by the Training section due to poor attendance and lack of accountability.
  - The Regional Clinic will be presented at the Colorado Officiates Day on July 30 in conjunction with the NASO National Convention. Cost is $60 per attendee and includes morning speakers, lunch and afternoon session. Apply for scholarship from CVOA by writing to the Executive Committee.
  - Continuing education and materials for study sessions can be found on Rob Livingston's YouTube channel:
    - <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCyTPvve5LOvF8T0tTzj4TzA>
  - The CVOA Training Zoom account is available for study sessions. Rob will need to start the meetings and then it will be turned over to the Area Director. For shorter meetings, a personal, free account with Zoom can also be used. (45-minute time limit).
